INTRODUCTION

The vision came again that same day, but while I was at home . . .

Earthquake!

MONDAY, JULY 2, 1973 (5:00 p.m. at home)

I arrived home at my apartment in Des Plaines. As I paused on the sidewalk, again came the prelude of bright light, the crack, and the quake.

The apartment buildings seemed to do well and hold up in the quake, probably the result of a strong construction.

Again, I heard the panicky screams of people and watched as the earth ruptured about four feet from the sidewalk that I was standing on. Steam poured out of the crack which was now about one foot wide running north-south in direction.

I was still not done seeing this MONSTER EARTHQUAKE. Read on . . .
